

These comments are in regard to support for keeping a phone number even when changing carriers (LNP). In support of keeping your original numbers, we would not have to have as many area codes or overlays area codes and consumer would be able to change carriers without having to change all correspondence to associates.